NEPAL EARTHQUAKE – SCHOOL REBUILDING PROJECT

BACKGROUND

• Two consecutive earthquakes in Nepal, on 25 April and 12 May 2015, killed approximately 10,000 people, and left more than 25,000 people injured
• Many schools in residential and rural areas were badly damaged

AFC’S COMMITMENT

In line with AFC President Shaikh Salman bin Ebrahim Al Khalifa’s commitment to social development using the power of football, the Confederation committed funding to assist the people of Nepal affected by the tragedy.

The AFC decided to rebuild a school in one of the affected rural areas as part of its relief project initiatives.
NEPAL EARTHQUAKE - SCHOOL REBUILDING PROJECT

LEGACY PROJECT

• Working with the All Nepal Football Association (ANFA), the local football association and the AFC’s legacy partner Coaches Across Continents (CAC), a continuous football education and awareness programme has been implemented for the children living in the affected area.

IDENTIFIED RELIEF PROJECT

• Shree Seti Devi Higher Secondary School in Sindhupalchowk, Northern Nepal has been rebuilt, has been rebuilt following damage by the earthquakes in May 2015.
• Construction work started in December 2016.
• The school building consists of two blocks of two-storey buildings with 18 classrooms to cater for 800 children.
The AFC Village consists of 30 houses and a dedicated sports field. The building was constructed by AFC at Tacloban Province which was hit by a devastating typhoon in 2014. Laptops are provided by the AFC in the village community centre for all residents to use. Health awareness and general education are provided for the AFC Village community.

Local coaches educated by Coaches Across Continents will lead a football social education programme in the village.
AFC PARTNERSHIP WITH DIFFERENT ORGANISATIONS

The AFC and One World Play Project (OWPP) signed a Memorandum of Understanding in September 2013 and the ultra-durable balls project is part of the partnership. The project leverages on the beautiful game as a platform to enrich lives and bring about positive social outcomes.

The One World Futbol is a gift for life: the footballs are ideal for use in tough environments and are virtually indestructible, making them last a lifetime. The One World Futbols are recognised as a breakthrough in ball technology—the ultra-durable balls never need a pump and never go flat.

RECOGNITION
• The ultra-durable balls project, which is based on the One World Futbol created by OWPP, won gold in the ‘Best Sports CSR Initiative’ category at the prestigious Asia Sports Industry Awards (SPIA) in 2016.

DONATIONS ARE MADE TO RURAL SCHOOLS, DISABILITY ORGANISATIONS AND ORPHANAGES. AN ULTRA-DURABLE FOOTBALL DONATION EVENT COMPRISSES:

1. Public health campaign - collaboration with NGOs, local government authorities and national team players.

2. Social responsibility seminar & workshop - for grassroots coaches, university students, NGOs and relevant government officials.

3. Football clinics - with presence of national team players.
OUTCOME

- Total number of balls distributed to Member Associations since 2013: 141,590.

- 1.5 million children of different abilities have found their love for the game.

- 500 grassroots coaches attended social responsibility seminars to gain extended knowledge on using football as a platform for social development initiatives.

- Through the advocacy and awareness campaign, 200,000 people across Asia have learnt about pressing local health issues, girls and women empowerment, as well as understanding the needs of people with disabilities and the less fortunate.

It is the project’s mission to champion play anywhere and everywhere. Together with OWPP, the AFC is empowering children across Asia through the power of play.

As part of the project, the AFC works with its Member Associations, local NGOs and government stakeholders to organise social responsibility seminars. These cover key development areas such as character building, child psychology, health awareness, gender equality, and social inclusion.

The ultra-durable balls project is a key part of the five strategic social responsibility focus areas under the AFC’s Vision and Mission: children and youth, integrity and education, social inclusion, health and humanitarian relief.

The programme, combining a wide-reaching football donation with a social responsibility awareness aspect, has been recognised internationally.
