- e) The Hosting Club and its National Association are solely responsible for the insurance coverage of the Stadiums and must release AFC of any liability whatsoever in this respect. A release of liability must be signed and returned to AFC at least one month before the start of the Competition. If such an exemption from liability is not presented in due time, the Hosting club agrees that the necessary insurance coverage may be concluded by AFC at their expense.
- f) The Participating Clubs are responsible for the insurance coverage (including hospitalization and surgical operations) of their delegation, including players and officials, at their own expense, for all matches played in the competition. Claims for damages against AFC are expressly excluded, and the participating Clubs shall hold AFC harmless against any such claims.

5. Responsibility

- a) The Hosting Club and its National Association shall discharge AFC and hold it harmless from all responsibility and relinquish any claim against AFC and the members of its delegation for any damages resulting from any act or omission relating to the organisation and course of the Competition to the exclusion of damages caused by AFC or the members of its delegation acting with intent or gross negligence.
- b) The Hosting clubs and its National Association shall exempt (indemnify and hold harmless) AFC from all third party claims for damages relating to match organisation, regardless of whether individual matches in question take place or not.

SECTION 2: TECHNICAL REGULATIONS

- 6. Matches played in accordance with the Laws of the Game
 - a) All matches shall be played in accordance with the Laws of the Game laid down by the International Football Association Board and published by FIFA.
 - b) In the case of any discrepancy in the interpretation of the Laws of the Game, the English version shall prevail and is authoritative.
 - c) Only three (3) substitutes listed on the Match Starting List may take part in the match.
 - d) If there are fewer than seven (7) players on either of the teams, the match shall be abandoned. In this case, the AFC Competitions Committee (and if required the AFC Disciplinary Committee) shall decide on the consequences.

7. Duration of Match

- a) Each match shall last 90 minutes, comprising two periods of 45 minutes, with an interval of 15 minutes in between from the whistle ending the first period to the whistle starting the second period.
- b) Both teams shall walk to the field together from their dressing rooms after the end of 15 minutes interval.

8. Extra Time

a) If, in accordance with the provisions of these Regulations, extra time is played as a result of a draw at the end of normal playing time, it shall consist of two (2) periods of fifteen (15) minutes each, with an interval of five (5) minutes at the end of normal playing time, but not between the two periods of extra time.

9. Away Goals

a) For matches in the Knock-out format played on a home and away basis, if two Teams involved in a tie score the same number of goals over two legs, the Teams which scores more away goals qualifies for the next stage. If this procedure does not produce a result i.e. if the two teams score the same number of goals at home and away, extra time shall be played according to the provisions of these regulations.

10. Determining the Winner by Penalty Kicks

- a) If the result is still a draw after the two periods of extra time, kicks from the penalty mark shall be taken to determine the winner, in accordance with the procedures described in the Laws of the Game.
- b) If the taking of kicks from the penalty mark cannot be completed because of weather conditions or for other reasons beyond control, the results shall be decided by the drawing of lots by the Referee in the presence of the AFC Match Commissioner and the two (2) team captains.
- c) If, through the fault of a Team, the taking of kicks from the penalty mark cannot be completed, Art. 29 c) of these regulations shall apply.

11. Abandonment of Matches

- a) If the match is stopped by the Referee before the end of normal time or during any extra time because of any force majeure or any other incidents such as, but not limited to, the field is not fit for play, weather conditions, floodlight failure, etc. the following procedures must be followed:
 - i. The match is automatically suspended for the duration of thirty (30) minutes to allow conditions to improve sufficiently to restart the match, unless the referee decides that the match can be resumed earlier.
 - ii. At the discretion of the Referee, another suspension of a maximum of thirty (30) minutes shall be allowed if in his opinion this extra period of suspension will allow the match to be resumed. Otherwise, at the end of this second thirty (30) minute period, the Referee must declare the match to have been abandoned.
 - iii. In the case of an abandoned match, the AFC shall decide within two (2) hours of the Referee's decision to abandon the match whether the match result at the time of abandonment is valid or whether a replay shall be organised, taking sporting and organisational considerations into account.
- b) No appeals may be lodged against decisions stated in Art. 11 a).
- c) In the case a match is abandoned as a result of force majeure for any reason after it has already kicked off, the match shall recommence with the same score at the minute at which play was interrupted rather than being replayed in full.

The following principles shall apply to the recommencement of the match:

- i. The match shall recommence with the same players on the pitch and substitutes available as when the match was initially abandoned;
- ii. No additional substitutes maybe be added to the list of players on the team sheet;
- iii. The teams can make only the number of substitution to which they were still entitled when the match was abandoned:
- iv. Players sent off during the abandoned match cannot be replaced;
- v. Any sanctions imposed before the match was abandoned remain valid for the remainder of the match;
- vi. The kick-off time, date (foreseen for the following day) and location shall be decided by the Organising Committee;
 - vii) Any matters requiring further decision shall be treated by the Organising Committee

12. Cancellation of Matches

- a) If the match cannot commence on time due to force majeure or any other incidents such as, but not limited to, the field is not fit for play, weather conditions, floodlight failure, etc. the following procedures must be followed:
 - vii. The match must first be delayed for a minimum of thirty (30) minutes, unless the Referee decides that the match can commence earlier, before a decision to reschedule the match is taken.
 - viii. At the discretion of the Referee, another delay of a maximum of thirty (30) minutes shall be allowed if in his opinion this extra period of delay will allow the match to commence. Otherwise, at the end of this second thirty (30) minute period, the Referee must declare the match to have been cancelled.
 - ix. In the case of a cancelled match, the AFC shall decide within two (2) hours of the Referee's decision to cancel the match whether the match can be rescheduled, taking sporting and organisational considerations into account, or whether any other action and decision is needed to continue with the competition. Any disciplinary sanctions resulting from the cancelled match shall remain in force.
- b) No appeals may be lodged against decisions stated in Art. 12 a).

13. Stadiums (Stadia)

- a) The Stadium for the matches in the Competition shall be nominated upon entry, by the Clubs and subject to inspection and confirmation by AFC.
- b) Unless stipulated otherwise in these Regulations, matches in the Competition must be played in a stadium which meets all the requirement of and standards stated in the "AFC Stadia Regulations for AFC Champions League & AFC Cup" in compliance with the safety & security standards and other AFC guidelines and instructions for international matches.
- c) The stadium nominated for the matches in the Competition by the Participating Club and its National Association shall be the home venue of the Participating Club in the national top league, unless otherwise instructed by AFC.

- d) If the Hosting Club considers the field of play unfit for play, the AFC Secretariat shall be informed immediately, as well as the visiting Club and the AFC Match Officials before their departure. If the Hosting Club concerned fails to do this, it will be obliged to cover all of the expenses incurred for travel, board and lodging of the parties involved.
- e) If there is any doubt regarding the condition of the field of play once the visiting Club has already left to play the match, the referee shall decide whether the field of play is playable or not. If the referee declares that the match cannot commence because of force majeure, or any other incidents such as, but not limited to, the field is not fit for play, weather conditions, floodlight failures, etc. the procedure to be followed is described in Art. 12 above.
- f) Throughout the competition a Club must play all its home matches in the Competition at one and the same Stadium unless forced to do otherwise because of circumstances beyond its control. In this case, the Club must provide proof and evidence, including but not limited to photographs, visual evidence and letters from the appropriate authorities as to why the Stadium is no longer fit to host the Match.
- g) Only upon receipt of the necessary documents, AFC will make a decision on condition of the Stadium and where necessary, grant the Club the permission to nominate another Stadium which must meet the conditions in the "AFC Stadia Regulations for AFC Champions League & AFC Cup".
